COUNTY BOARD MET LAST MONDAY

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, February 3, at 10 a. m., there being present John MacBain, presiding; T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, Jos. M. Francis and Dr. C. V. Thompson.

Following the roll call, Chairman MacBain arose and announced that the supervisors met in special session the preceding Friday and appointed Mrs. Lizzie M. Nash county clerk to take the place of her late husband, Joseph H. Nash. The chairman asked that the appointment be now ratified by the board. This was done, on motion of Francis, seconded by Hickey.

Mrs. Nash was present and in a few words, expressed her appreciation to the board for the appointment.

District Attorney Franklin Swart then read the following resolution, which was adopted on motion of Francis, seconded by Brown, and by a standing vote of the board:

Joseph H. Nash, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, died January 30th, 1919.

In his eternal absence we, prone to differ as individuals, presume neither to criticise not to eulogize.

We seek in a small measure but to speak in due recognition:

For more than twelve years last past he was clerk of the San Mateo County and of this board. He was ever active, aggressive and fearless in the performance of his duty. He was efficient, painstaking and courteous. Though aggressive he has never been officially criticised, nor found wanting in an official duty.

The records of the Superior Court and of this board as kept and precerved by him during the twelve years past will bespeak his worth until the archieves of the county crumble. His countless and devoted friends reflect his value personally and bespeak the loss that this county and state has sustained.

In recognition, Therefore, of Joseph H. Nash and his valued services to this county and state.

Be it resolved and ordered by this Board and each member thereof:

That they hereby express to the bereaved widow their sincere sympathy,

That as an expression of confidenec they hereby most respectfully request her to carry on the work of her late husband.

That they this day stand adjourned in respect to the memory of their late Clerk.

That a copy of this testimonial and order be spread upon the official minutes of this board to stand as a public record of this county.

Unanimously adopted and ordered this 3rd day of February, 1919, by the following vote:

Ayes, W. H. Brown, J. M. Francis, T. L. Hickey, C. V. Thompson.
John MacBain, Chairman.

The National Magnesia Works is adding another building to its plant. The concern has large government contracts to finish and it is rushing the work. Over a hundred men and women are employed there at good wages. There are never any differences between the employer and the workmen, which shows that the treatment accorded the employes is satisfactory. If all concerns were like to local institutions there would be no tsrikes.

"Roc" Lombardini, who has been serving with the Ninety-first division in France, has returned to his home here. He will be mustered out of the service at the Presidio today. He was greeted by friends here during the week. Mr. Lombardini is glad to get back to the land of sunshine and flowers. William Maloney is expected home today. He left Camp Lewis, Washington, Thursday.

The attendance at the Wednesday evening dances is steadily increasing and the closing of the Wednesday dances at Camp Fremont will mean that a very large crowd will enjoy the next Wednesday evening social dance in the Forester's Hall on the night of Lincoln's birthday. The management at the Knights of Columbus hall at Fremont has announced positively that the Wednesday evening dances were discontinued with the closing of their dance last Wednesday.

Louis Blas, an old-time resident of Redwood City, died at San Mateo on Wednesday afternoon after a long and painful illness. During the time that Camp Fremont at Menlo Park was at its height Mr. Blas conducted a restaurant on Broadway. He was a native of Guam, aged 47 years. He leaves a large family of sons and daughters. Mr. Blas, is also survived by his wife. The deceased was buried in Holy Cross cemetery yesterday.

IN MEMORY OF COUNTY CLERK NASH

At the opening of court on Thursday morning Judge Buck appointed a committee of the bar association, consisting of Edw. F. Fitzpatrick, Joseph J. Bullock and Hall C. Ross to prepare a suitable memorial for the late county clerk of the court, Jos. H. Nash. In the afternoon the committee reported, Judge E. F. Fitzpatrick reading the following beautiful resolutions in open court. Mr. Fitzpatrick prefaced the reading of the resolutions by a feat tribute to the character and worth of Jos. H. Nash:

MEMORIAL

Of the Honorable Joseph H. Nash, late county clerk of the County of San Mateo, and ex-officio clerk of the Superior Court of San Mateo county:

To the Honorable George H. Buck, Judge of the Superior Court of the county of San Mateo, State of California:

Your committee representing the Bench and Bar of San Mateo county, appointed by your Honor to prepare a memorial of Joseph H. Nash, late County Clerk of San Mateo county, and ex-officio clerk of this Court, respectfully submit the following:

One week ago today, in the prime of life, enjoying to the full measure the honor, confidence and respect of his fellow men, Joseph H. Nash, passed peacefully from earth unto the eternity of the future.

His death caused profound and sincere sorrow throughout this county, where from a mere youth he lived and grew to manhood, beloved, respected and most singularly honored, and while the public at large are grieved over the death of their respected fellow citizen, his death is more keenly felt by those, who for twelve years have been associated with him in his official capacity as an officer of this court.

It is therefore, with a feeling of deep appreciation for his sterling worth as an official of this county, and as an officer of this court, that your committee makes this testimonial of its respect for his memory, and its sense of profound loss at his death, and that we convey to this Court in which he so long officiated our respect and appreciation of his efficient services, his kindly and courteous behaviour, his ready willingness to assist to his utmost those of us who for many years had official and business relations with him, and that we convey to his relatives our sincere sympathy for their bereavement.

A little more than twelve years ago, Joseph H. Nash was first elected County Clerk of San Mateo county he came into office a young man full of life and vigor, and with a conscientious determination to perform the duties of the office to which he had been elected to the best of his ability, recognizing to the fullest extent that a "Public office is a public trust;" that his early understanding of his duties were indelibly impressed upon his mind, is bourne out by the fact that he was successively elected four times ,and more particularly by his last election, when he received the greatful tribute of as appreciative public by polling the highest vote of any candidate for public office in this county.

Joseph H. Nash, was fearless in the performance of the trust reposed in him, yet at all times was he ever mindful of the fact that he was a public servant, and by his untiring and successful effort to do right, he has left a lasting monument to his name as a faithful, honest and efficient public official, and the position in public esteem which he occupied is the highest testimonial man can leave.

We, who with the Court were daily associated with him are deeply moved by his death, his genial kindly manner, his unfailing courtesy will be cherished memories that will long survive.

We here record our approbation of the recent magnanimous action of the Honorable Board of Supervisors of this County in appointing as his successor his loving help-mate and wife, Elizabeth Meta Nash, and we extend to her our assurances of our assistance in the performance of her duties as County Clerk and Clerk of this Honorable Court, as well as our sympathy in her great and irreparable loss.

Dated: Redwood City, February 6, 1919.

EDW. F. FITZPATRICK,
J. J. BULLOCK,
HALL C. ROSS,
Committee.

At the conclusion of the reading Judge Buck ordered the memorial spread in full on a separate page of the minutes, a copy of same forwarded to the widow and mother of the deceased, and to the press of the county. Mrs. Jos. H. Nash was present in court during the reading of the resolution.

CITY DADS IN REGULAR SESSION

The city trustees met Monday evening in regular session, Mayor Carl K. Mabie, presiding.

In behalf of the Fire Department, Clarence Choate presented plans for a new fire house, which, if built on Main street, will be a two-story brick building 30 X 75 feet, with two entrances on the lower floor for housing the chemical engine, hook and ladder truck, two hose carts and other apparatus, the signal switchboard will also be on the lower floor.

On the upper floor the plans specify a hall 40 feet deep, two bedrooms, a kitchenette, bath and shower room.

Fire Chief M. E. Ryan, who is also a member of the board, stated that he had consulted Architect W. H. Toepke of Burlingame, who agreed to furnish the plans free in case the city rejected the same. The plans were approved by the board and the Chief was instructed to procure the estimates of cost. It is expected to erect the building his summer by a bond issue.

Rev. C. A. Parker appeared before the board in behalf of a proposed memorial service to be held tomorrow in honor of the late Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt. The board approved the plan and Mayor Mabie appointed Trustees M. E. Ryan and Geo. W. McNulty as a committee to represent the city. Rev. Parker explained that the service was to be non-sectarian ,and would probably be held in the Methodist church and some prominent speaker should be engaged to deliver the address. The city will not be called upon for financial assistance.

The trustees received a communication from the Pacific Gas and Electric company, asking permission to replace several poles on Main street belonging to the city, with the company's poles, offering the city free contact for the privilege.

The board was opposed to the plan of giving the company the ownership of the poles, and on motion of Trustee McNulty, seconded by Trustee Ryan denied the request but gave the company permission, if desired, to erect the poles and donate them to the city, the company having free contact for a period of five years.

Resolutions ordering sewers on the lower end of Stambaugh street, Manzanita street and other streets in the Eastern Addition, were adopted and bids called for the construction of this work to be opened March 3.

Resolution of Intention No. C-2, calling for the construction of sewers and sidewalks on Davis street in the Roosevelt avenue district, was adopted by the board.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Miss Muriel Clark, one of the popular clerks in the Southern Pacific freight offices at Fourth and King streets, San Francisco, has been granted four weeks leave which she is enjoying to the full.

Mrs. Fred W. Lippman went to Oakland for a few days visit with friends and relatives last week.

Mr. Milton J. McDonnell with his three winsome daughters, the Misses Ione, Olive and Helen, who were accompanied by the accomplished and popular Miss Katherine Feeley, and two stalwart escorts autoed over from Oakland last Sunday to enjoy an outing at "Laurel Nook" the cool and inviting rendezvous of the Lippman's. Mr. McDonnell is a brother of Mrs. Lippman.

Mrs. John Adams Boyd was a most happy grandma last Tuesday morning when the glad tidings was wafted to her by the Pacific telephone route from San Francisco that a baby girl had been born to her eldest daughter Aileen and the proud and happy father Bill Payne. If it be possible, we believe the Grandma was more proud of the distinction, than when the first man child came into the Boyd home eight years ago which had been preceded by five girls, and with a lapse of nine years without a new chick. When such glad news come to us by the means of the heartless corporation we are almost ready to forget and forgive for the taking all the traffic will bear.

The charming Miss Ruby Hurlbut of Piedmont came over to visit the week-end at the home of Mrs. Jno. V. Clark, the mother of Lyle G. Clark Miss Hurlbut was extremely disappointed at the tardiness of the government in releasing the boys who so willingly and unselfishly left their homes and sweethearts many months ago to help fight the hun.

Mrs. Cooley, nee Ethel McLean, is expected to arrive home Wednesday night from New York at which port she recently arrived upon her return from England. Mrs. Cooley as trained nurse enlisted at the time the U. S. entered the war and has been in active work with the hospital department ever since her arrival on the other side. Mrs. Cooley has written many interesting letters to her friends regarding her work and her many experiences in connection with it; and it is to be expected that it will require many months for her to relate the many delightful stories she will have to tell about the country she has seen, the charming people she has met and her transatlantic trips. For she is not only a most charming conversationalist and story teller.

Fred W. Lippman has employed a Brazilian who speaks Spanish fluently but who can scarcely utter an intelligible letter in the English. Fred has been some linguist himself but intelligible letter in English. Fred has become somewhat rusty and wants to brush up on Spanish so that when the G. O. P. gets back into power again he may be rewarded with one of the juicy diplomatic plums connected with the consulates in one of the dark sister southern republics for his faithful adherents to the old party during the past eight years.

It was a great surprise to Miss Murial Clark's many friends when she announced last Wednesday that about three weeks ago she decided to change her name to Mrs. William E. Fisher and she is now being showered with congratulations. Mrs. Fisher is the only daughter of Mrs. R. P. Hurlbut, Sr., and has made many friends among the young folks during her residence of three years here. Mr. Fisher is one of San Francisco's successful young business men, being a member of the Delany Bros Grocery Co., Incorporated, and the young couple are beginning their married life under very happy auspices and with very bright promise for the future.

On this hunting trip this time Guy Hull was bound that he would not be guyed by anybody nor disappointany of his friends even if he did not have to break the game laws of the state in order to supply all of them. Duck meat is mighty good and here's hoping Guy'll never get married so long as he remains a good sport, for he might have to take most of the ducks' home, particularly during the cost of high living.

The members of the Quinn family, four of whom were down with the "flu" at the same time, Mrs. Quinn and three of her daughters, have now practically recovered after a long siege, and Miss May has resumed her work with the lumber company at San Mateo.

Asa E. Hull received a car load of large draft horses Wednesday morning which the Garabaldi company of San Francisco sent down for rest and grazing.

EUGENE MOUROT WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

On Wednesday Henry E. Mourot filed the last will and testament of his father, Eugene Mourot who died at Los Angeles on January 29 at the age of 72 years. Henry Mourot has also applied for letters testamentary thereon. The estate consists of a piece of real estate located in San Francisco valued at $4000. The will was executed on November 16, 1918 and the subscribing witnesses were Minnie I. Sullivan and Josephine P. L. Ginaca of Los Angeles. The legatees and devisees under the will are Henry E. Mourot and Albert Mourot, sons living in San Francisco and one daughter, Louise, A. Ferguson and a grand child, Maria Louise Ferguson, residing with her mother in Los Angeles. E. F. Fitzpatrick is the attorney for petitioner.

The deceased left a will bearing date of June 16, 1894. The estate consists of an undivided half interest in 19 acres of land in the county valued at $2000.

NOW THAT YOU CAN BUILD YOUR NEW HOME TAKE TIME TO PLAN IT CAREFULLY

How many times have we heard, while visiting the newly built homes of friends:

"I wish I had thought to put a light here and another one there. And, just think, I entirely forgot base plugs in the dining room and laundry."

The cheapest time to wire your house is when it is being built.

A house is not properly planned these days unless an electrical contractor, dealer or engineer has been consulted.

Many new and important changes in lighting and wiring principles make the ELECTRICAL man the person upon whom your future comfort depends.

Ask your architect to go over the plans with a competent electrical contractor or engineer. Do not accept them until this has been done.

CALIFORNIA AND CALIFORNIANS

BY GENERAL JOHN F. SHEEHAN

The Last Mexican Governors

General Jose Manuel Micheltorena—1842-45.—This Governor who had served in Texas campaigns with Santa Ana, did not arrive in California until September, 1842, and in the meantime Manuel Jimeno Casarin had been placed in charge of affairs by Alvarado, who was incapitated by illness. Micheltoreno brought with him a military force, consisting of the scourings of Mexican prisons and alms houses, with which to stem the tide of American immigration and if practicable drive out of California the "Gringoes" or Yankee invaders. But the Americans had come to stay. At San Diego the Governor issued a royal-like proclamation calling upon all living on the line of travel to Monterey to provide for his reception in a manner befitting his rank. He then opened the way for a rather precipitous departure. At Los Angeles he took oath of office, but hesitated about proceeding to the capital. And there was ample reason for this. For Commodore Catesby A. Jones of the United States navy had arrived at Monterey with a ship of war ,and having been informed that his country had declared war against Mexico, promptly took possession of the custom house and raised the American flag thereon. But the Commodore was over zealous and premature. He was aware that the United States had its foot already on Oregon and had its eye on the country to the South of it, especially the wonderful Bay of San Francisco; also that England had secured the coast north of Oregon and was desirous of being its southern neighbor; therefore the Commodore determined to lose no time. He landed four hundred men; but soon learned that his information was incorrect he hauled down the flag and apologized. Micheltorena issued indignant proclamations, and the incident was closed by Commodore Jones visiting the Governor at Los Angeles, apologized in person, and saluting the Mexican flag at San Diego as an acknowledgement of his error. Micheltorena found the government of California sadly in debt. Its officers and soldiers had not been paid, as the central government was too involved politically and financially to help it. Even the Pious fund had been borrowed.

The Governor conceived the idea of restoring the Missions, but it was too late, all having lapsed into innocuous desuetude. There appeared to be nothing left for the administration to do but to oust the Americans now in the country and prevent others from coming. But the Americans were too strongly intrenched—and they continued to pour in—now mostly by the ox-team route across the plains. In 1844-45 Alvarado again came to the fore and organized two regiments, one commanded by himself, and the other by his uncle, General Vallejo. Micheltorena was obnoxious to the Californians and must go. The Governor made an humiliating alliance with Captain John A. Sutter of New Helvetia (or Sacramento) and marched to Salinas with 100 rifle-men and many Indians, his object being to capture Alvarado and Castro and thus remove two thorns from his path. But the two conspirators with a force of armed men marched to Los Angeles and were joined by Pio Pico and other leaders of the South. The Los Angeles assembly outlawed Micheltorena, and the two forces met at Cahuenga in the neighborhood of San Fernando. Alvarado ordered his dragoons to charge; Sutter raised the white flag; Micheltorena did likewise to Castro—and the "battle" which never began, was over. Micheltorena was invited to leave the country, which invitation he acecpted, without regret, perhaps, and his career in California ended.

Pio Pico—1845-46—The last demonstration was against Governor Micheltorena, not against the mother country. Pico took the reigns of government by reason of being the senior "Vocal," or head of the local governing body of California. He was the last Governor representing the Spanish or Mexican Governments—terminating the Latin regime in California—being the third Native Son to be at the head of affairs. And now come his chance to make his beloved Los Angeles the capital—a consummation for which he had ardently striven for years. And this was his official act. As Baja, California was also within his jurisdiction Pico sent Jose Maria Covarrubias and Santiago Arguello as Commissioners to La Paz to look after affairs in the Lower country. Of course it was in order to issue the usual prounuciations, which Pio Pico did not fail to send forth in bombastic style. In 1845 Mexico sent Jose Maria Hijar (who had been named Governor but his appointment had been withdrawn) to California to inquired into the differences between Micheltorena and the Californians, and after the Commissioner consulted with the Assembly Pico was duly confirmed as Governor. The Californians declared for a government of federation and opposed to centralism, but Santa Ana was in disfavor in Mexico, and the existing government did not care what views were held in California. San Diego was made a port of entry in addition to Monterey. New trouble arose between Governor Pico and Jose Castro (who had been named Commandante General,) principally over the distribution of government receipts as between the civil and military authorities, Castro claiming that he was not getting his share. The population of California in 1845 was: 7000 of Spanish blood, 10,000 domesticated Indians; 700 Americans, 100 English, Scotch and Irish, and about 100 Germans, French and Italians. In May it was finally decreed to rent or sell all the Mission properties, and all the Indians were declared to be free from neophytism. In August the Assembly, anticipating war with the United States, passed laws for the enrollment of the militia, but it was all a paper system, for money, arms and equipment were lacking. Pico had trouble with Jose Carrillo, and there was constant ilifeeling between the Governor and General Castro. But finally all united in the effort to stem the tide of American immigration—without avail. Then Fremont came, the Bear Flag was raised, Commodore Sloat hauled down the Mexican flag from the Custom House at Monterey and replaced it with the Stars and Stripes—and the end came for the Spaniards and Mexico, so far as California was concerned. These historical incidents will be treated in other chapters. Pio Pico was born at San Gabriel, Los Angeles county, May 5, 1801. His garndfather and father and mother (the latter a Gutierrez) all came with the Anza expedition overland from Sonora, Mexico, in 1776. Pico married in Los Angeles Francisco Xavier Alvarado, and after Francisco Xavier Alarado ,and after her death in 1854 took as second wife Conception Avila. He had vast grants of land but most of his possessions left his hands before he died on September 11, 1894—he then being aged ninety-three years. The author well remembers Pio Pico in his decliniug years as a short, bulky man, of swarthy complexion, showing mixed blood, quite unlike the Pachecos, the Alvarados, Castros, Carrillos, the Estudillos and others of the California Dons.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Joseph Kelly will be home from France today. He left Camp Lewis on Thursday for home. He was near the front line trenches when the armistice was signed.

Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W. will install officers for the term next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mamie Glennan of Redwood City will be the installing officer. All sisters are requested to attend.

Mrs. W. Hammerson's home on Santa Cruz avenue has been leased to Mrs. M. Naseli, manager of the University Heights Dairy depot near the postoffice. The concern is doing a large business in butter ,eggs and milk. Its sales are increasing daily.

Mrs. J. Stanley, wife of Professor E. J. Stanley of the mechanical engineering department of Stanford University, passed away at her home at Palo Alto on Monday after a long illness. The deceased was a native of San Francisco and was the mother of Edward Stanley, who for many years was a member of the choir of the Church of the Nativity. Father J. B. Hannigan sang the mass in the Catholic church at Palo Alto Wednesday morning for the repose of her soul. Mrs. Stanley, besides her husband, is survived by four sons, all of whom were in the service of the United States during the war, and one daughter. She was a noble woman, beloved for her Christian virtues and charitable inclinations.

The Dolan Wrecking company is doing a big business at their headquarters here in the sale of building material bought at Camp Fremont. Prospective buyers can find all kinds of building material for bargains there. The concern offers big bargains in lumber.

Thomas Sexton returned home from France on Saturday last. He is at the Presidio and will be mustered out on Wednesday next. Young Sexton was at the front and was to be on the fighting line the day the armistice was signed. He was attached to 346 field artillery. The big guns of the company were aimed upon the enemy and they were about to belch forth when peace was declared. Mr. Saxton has somewhat a different tale to tell about French hospitality. He says that business men like those in this country overcharged the soldiers for everything they bought and showed them very little hospitality and gave them no entertainment. The Knights of Columbus was the only organization that gave them anything like good treatment. Sexton met John O'Dea and Jack Roach almost daily.

John Clothier this week commenced a business course at Heald's Business College in San Francisco. He is a bright young man and is certain to make his mark in the business world.

All members of the Menlo Park branch of the American Red Cross, who have served 800 hours since April 1917 are entitled to a medal. Application blanks may be had from the heads of work rooms and when filled out may be sent to the chairman, Mrs. James L. Flood, 2222 Broadway. This service includes the hours spent on gauze dressings, sewing, knitting and civilian relief.
